EDITORIAL

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

"My idea of Christmas, whether old-fashioned or modern, is very simple: loving others. Come to think of it, why do we have to wait for Christmas to do that?"
- Bob Hope

The folks at the Elba post office were busy this week wishing everyone a Merry Christmas as they handed out packages left and right!

Medical experts at UAB on the front lines of the battle against COVID-19 stress that Alabama residents "are not out of the woods yet, but there is light at the end of the tunnel." They are still strongly recommending that residents continue mask-wearing, hand washing, social distancing and a 'stay home if you are sick' policy – and of course take the vaccine shot when it becomes available.

Both President-elect Joe Biden and Alabama Governor Kay Ivey . . . Oh and also Vice President Mike Pence went before the TV cameras this week to take their first of two COVID-19 shots. Other prominent people, both politicians and medical experts have also stepped up to the plate and showed their confidence in the new virus protection by taking this shot. We will do the same, except it will not be worthy of a TV production.

A couple of months ago we received an unexpected small package from California. It turned out that former Dorsey Trailer dealer Roger Simon was clearing out his bookcase (per his wife's 'suggestion') and correctly decided we would enjoy a whole book of famous quotes by military leaders from throughout history. There are some great quotes in that book. We don't know how someone collected that many tidbits of history from hundreds of years of military leaders talking and/or writing. Now if any of our other friends are thinking about retiring, note that Roger retired, probably with ideas of doing whatever he wanted to, whenever the whim struck him – but his wife put him to work around the house with "honey-do" jobs. We wish him peace and quiet in the rest of his retirement.

Recently a grocery store incident brought home a reality. When checking out with our three or four items, there was a bottle of Tabasco and a bottle of Tums. The young man at the cash register – with a twinkle in his eye said, "Sir, those two items don't go together." Our quick answer was that our love for the Tabasco made the Tums a necessity. Thinking about it later we pondered that need. As a young man our stomach could take anything (or any amount), and it would not impact our day nor our night's sleep. Maybe that caused the lining of our stomach to 'rust out', thus requiring the Tums more often than it is wise to admit.

Elsewhere in this edition of The Elba Clipper is a story on Elba native Keith Maddox. A graduate of Elba High School, married to an Elba girl (Susie Brunson), he worked his way up the ladder and clearly "done good" for himself in a tough profession. Oh, his first job was stuffing sausage at Kelley Foods as a HS student.

We wish you a very safe and Merry Christmas!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Birmingham area hospitals applaud Governor Ivey's recent extension of the statewide Mask Order. We also encourage residents of Jefferson County and all across Alabama to continue their vigilance in taking every precaution possible to minimize the spread of COVID.

The initial COVID surge during the summer months stressed our healthcare system, but the drastic increase in confirmed COVID cases, hospitalizations, and deaths over the last few weeks is significantly more concerning. Currently, more than 600 COVID patients are being cared for in area hospitals, which is a 50% increase over the maximum number of patients we saw over the summer. And, the numbers continue to rise. We are just starting to see the effects of the Thanksgiving holiday and are concerned about the coming holidays, where people are more likely to gather indoors.

Across the community, our ICU units are filling to capacity. We are having to convert hospital units to COVID units and divert resources to care for COVID patients who desperately need care. As more COVID patients fill our hospital beds, our ability to care for those with other healthcare needs is compromised.

Not only are we facing spacing challenges, but we are experiencing staffing challenges as well. Across the community, almost 500 of our own hospital staff members are unable to work due to COVID related issues. The staff who are able to work are facing longer hours with an increased workload. Caregivers are tired and overstressed. Trying to balance staffing shortages alongside space constraints is becoming increasingly problematic and detrimental to our ability to care for all of the many additional medical needs and conditions in our community.

Given the high level of community spread, our hospitals need the public's help in stopping the spread of COVID. Now more than ever, the community has truly become the front lines in the fight against this pandemic. We know a lot has been asked of you thus far, but we desperately need your help. We know that masking, social distancing, and hand washing will help us ensure that we have the resources to care for the patients who are most in need. These things are easy to do and help curb the spread of illness, while allowing us to keep vital businesses operating and our economy strong.

But even more is needed at this moment to reduce community spread.

We urge you to reconsider large family holiday gatherings during this time. Please consider avoiding travel and not mixing households. Even small gatherings of more than one household have proven deadly. Grab take-out to support a local business and eat at home with your immediate family. Set up virtual group gatherings to celebrate this holiday season so we can gather with all of our loved ones next year and not potentially lose them now to this virus. You can help us better care for our community. We implore you to help us in this fight.

Birmingham Area Hospitals

Happy Holidays from Mayor Tom Maddox,

In many ways this will be the most unusual Christmas in our lives.

We will see people who have to slide their masks down so we can recognize them. We may have trouble understanding simple conversation because of the masks. Singing Christmas carols may be difficult and the song "I'll be Home for Christmas" - may just be wishful thinking. Our thoughts are with those who will not be able to spend time together.

We will have to make some choices this year and many things will be inconvenient for us, but let's try not to let the problems, especially the problems associated with the pandemic, completely dampen our holiday spirit.

If you haven't already done so, make the effort to drive around the courthouse square and observe the decorations. Thanks to our city employees, our Beautification Committee, the Chamber of Commerce, and downtown merchants for making the downtown so "Christmassy".

Lastly, protect your health and the health of those around you. Take the precautions that are suggested. Wear your mask, keep your distance, wash your hands, and keep your hands away from your face. Be as safe as possible, but also find time to talk, share memories of joyful occasions, and find reasons to laugh together.

It is indeed a Christmas like no other, but it's still Christmas and can still be a special time.

*May you all have a very happy and safe holiday season.
Have a 'Merry Christmas' and a 'Happy New Year'.*

Jon Maddox

National Wreaths Across America Day

You've probably heard about National Wreaths Across America Day, a day of honor and remembrance for veterans during the holiday season. But here are some things you may not know about the event.

Wreaths Across America was started in 1992 by Morrill Worcester, the owner of Worcester Wreath Company. That year the Worcester Wreath Company found themselves with a surplus of wreaths following the holiday season. Mr. Worcester was unsure of what to do with these wreaths, but he did not want them to go to waste. He decided to donate the wreaths to Arlington National Cemetery to be placed in the older sections of the cemetery that had been receiving fewer visitors.

Other organizations stepped in to help with the effort and the wreaths were transported all the way to Virginia, decorated with red, hand-tied bows and laid on the veteran's graves.

It wasn't until 7 years later that the annual tribute gained national attention. Until then, it had been a quiet affair. But in 2005 a photo of the headstones, each with its own wreath, circulated on the internet. Thousands of people started calling, wanting to know how they could help or wishing to do the same thing at other National and State cemeteries.

In 2007, Wreaths Across America was formed to continue the service. Today, the movement has grown considerably with more and more cemeteries taking place every year. If you are interested you can lay your own wreath on your family veterans graves. Or you can look up events in your area.

While Wreaths Across America Day was started to honor veterans, laying a wreath or holiday decoration at the cemetery for any loved one can be a way to cope with your loss during the holiday season.

If you would like to get involved with Wreaths Across America, visit www.wreathsacrossamerica.com

PASTOR'S CORNER

by Philip Box, Minister

Elba Church of Christ, 715 Troy Road, Elba

Do not be afraid: for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all people; for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. Luke 2:10-11

I love that Christmas comes at the end of the year. Whether it has been a great year or maybe a hard year, it gives us a chance to stop and remember what is really important.

This year, for many, has been difficult. So many people that I talk to say, "I can't wait for 2021." I understand that, but the truth is that January 1 is not a reset button. COVID will still be here. The economy won't change overnight. We will still have politics.

That sounds tough, but there is hope. January 1 is not a reset button but there is one. Our reset button is Jesus and that is why we celebrate Christmas. Jesus came into the world to live and then to die for our sins so that we could have a fresh start. And the best part is that it is free!

If you are struggling with 2020 and ready to get it over, don't depend on Jan 1 to be your reset. Depend on The greatest gift ever given... Jesus. He said, "Come to Me all who are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest." This Christmas, rest in Him and His forgiveness. Faithfully obey his plan and restart the new year with a true new new beginning!

The Significance of Mary's Motherhood

Mary surrenders her whole being to God's will. The promise, the conception, the nine months waiting, and the birth – but it is more than even all that. Mary knows that the one born of her is the promised Messiah. He is hers and He is God's. The miracle of the virgin birth is a part of the divine framework of God's redemption of sinful man. Each new aspect of life with Jesus and Joseph will bring more occasions for pondering the meaning of it all (cf. Luke 2:25-33, 41-52, etc.). God does not reveal His entire plan to Mary all at once. She must have faith and whatever plan God has in mind, He is the One who is in charge, and He is the One who will bring that plan to fruition. Mary's mission of being the earthly mother of the Son of God never falters from the manger to the cross. There are times she is tested, but we see no regrets for submitting herself as she does.

Mary's mission does not end with the resurrection of Christ, nor should ours. The last mention of Mary is the time when she is gathered in the upper room with other believers after the ascension of Christ. The group is praying with the apostles and anticipating what will be next (cf. Acts 1:14). Mary typifies the noble qualities of both motherhood and servanthood; thus, we too say, "Blessed art thou among women."

LIFESTYLES

Santa makes special deliveries to senior citizens in Elba

The faces of many Elba senior citizens lightened as bright as a child on Christmas morning last Thursday, Dec. 17, when Santa delivered special packages to the local seniors.

The gifts provided to the Elba senior citizens were from Santa, and some local family/friends, and even a few secret Santa helpers, that adopted some of the seniors for Christmas. The gifts were donated directly for the Elba Seniors Citizens Program.

Elba Senior Center director Donna Falls said she wishes everyone could have seen the faces of the seniors as Santa delivered each his/her special gift. She said it was a great day made possible by some amazing people!

Santa climbed aboard the Elba Senior Citizens van last Thursday, Dec. 17, and was happy to find the vehicle full of gifts and surprises for the seniors of the Elba Senior Citizens Center. Santa said it was a jolly-good time visiting with the local seniors.

The Elba Senior Citizens Center will be closed - not delivering meals - from Dec. 24th through Jan. 1st.

Keith Maddox, head of San Diego-Imperial Counties Labor Council [California], to leave council at end of term on April 30

by DAVID GARRICK
(Used Courtesy of the Labor Council)

"He really unified a very divided labor community."

Zucchet said Maddox is also "incredibly talented" and accomplished a lot in a relatively short amount of time.

"He picked up San Diego politics and the particulars of issues extremely quickly," Zucchet said of Maddox. "He came in with his friendly smile and southern drawl and some people underestimated him, but in fact he was five steps ahead of them already."

The departure of Maddox means that someone new will take over the region's top labor post on April 30. Likely candidates include Brigitte Browning, president of Local 30 Unite Here, the county's union for hotel and food service workers, and Carol Kim, political director for the San Diego County Building and Construction Trades Council.

Browning and Kim already serve on the executive board of the labor council with Browning as executive vice president and Kim as a vice president.

Maddox said his tenure in San Diego featured a few disappointments. They include not getting even more unions to join the council, and the failure of a ballot measure that would have increased hotel taxes to expand the waterfront convention center.

Maddox stressed that the measure, which local unions strongly supported, fell narrowly short of the two-thirds approval required for passage. He noted that ongoing court battles could determine the measure only needed a simple majority.

Despite successes under Maddox, San Diego and its labor unions still face significant challenges, he said. No. 1 on that list would be relatively low wages coupled with some of the highest housing costs in the nation.

"I often tell people here that 'you've got New York housing prices and Alabama wages,'" he said.

One solution would be boosting "in-lieu" fees for affordable housing construction paid by developers, which San Diego recently increased. Maddox said additional increases are necessary.

Another challenge is boosting the region's transportation infrastructure, which Maddox said is crucial for businesses to prosper and for workers to get to jobs.

He said it was disappointing that a proposed regional ballot measure to pay for transportation projects wasn't put on the ballot this year because of the pandemic.

Maddox said San Diego's reputation as a poorly run city characterized by chaos is probably unfair.

"It's got a lot of the problems that other cities have," he said.

But he said it's crucial for local leaders to step up in the future.

"The housing and transportation challenges are going to take bold decisions, and there's been a lot of reluctance," he said.

Lusk and Wilkerson named to Chancellor's List at Ole Miss

The University of Mississippi, Oxford, Miss., recently announced students named to the Fall 2020 Honor Roll lists, including Chancellor's Honor Roll.

The Chancellor's Honor Roll is reserved for students who earn a semester GPA of 3.75-4.00.

"Our Chancellor's Honor Roll students deserve a great deal of recognition for their pursuit of academic excellence and incredible achievements," said Chancellor Glenn Boyce. "These students represent some of the best and brightest at the University of Mississippi, and I'm thrilled to congratulate them for their pursuit of personal and academic greatness."

The following students from the local area made the list: Mary Lacy Lusk and Kendall Grace Wilkerson, of Elba, Ala.

In order to be eligible for honor roll designation, a student must have completed at least 12 graded hours for the semester and may not be on academic probation during the semester.

Our grandson Lawson has always enjoyed looking at the gifts under the Christmas tree and checking out the name tags on the presents. So, this year we made it easy for him and put him in charge of putting bows on all the presents before he put them under the tree. This year when he passes out the presents he should already know who gets each gift.

For what it is worth....

*** The Elba Tigers carried an 0-7 record into the Christmas break, but began to show improvement in losses last week to New Brockton and Brantley, and if that improvement continues you can bet they will start to log some wins very soon. The starters back from last season have begun to settle back into their roles, and now that the roster appears to be set the team has begun to develop a personality. I've got the feeling Elba fans are going to see a very different team once they get back on the court.

*** The Elba Lady Tigers carried a 3-6 record into the Christmas break after two losses in a tournament in Slocumb and it is obvious that the team has yet to put everything back together after last year's banner season. With three starters back from a year ago many fans thought the Lady Tigers would be a team to watch in the 2A ranks, but so far the girls have struggled putting points on the scoreboard and have found wins hard to come by. Don't get too concerned; however, because area play has yet to start and by the time it does look for the Lady Tigers to be ready to roll.

*** I haven't seen all the area teams yet, but from what I have seen and what I have read between the lines from game results, it looks like all area fans will enjoy basketball once it returns from the holiday break. Brantley is the top boys team in the area by a long shot and should be a state tourney contender, while Kinston has the skills to beat any opponent on any given night, Zion Chapel is somewhat of a mystery team that has already logged some impressive wins, and New Brockton has definitely started down the road back to respectability and should be a solid team before long. Over on the girls side, Brantley has one of the area's top players and should be a post-season power, while Kinston is also a team to keep an eye on in the 1A ranks, Zion Chapel is better than most folks think, and New Brockton hopefully will get to play again once quarantines are over.

*** The state sportswriters poll came out last week in high school basketball and in the girls' division the poll has a distinct southeast Alabama flavor with eight teams included in the statewide poll in the seven classifications. (6A) Eufaula, (5A) Charles Henderson, (2A) Geneva County and (1A) Florala are all in the top three in their respective classes, while (2A) G.W. Long and (1A) Brantley, Samson and Pleasant Home all made the top ten. No area teams made the top three among the boys' teams, but (6A) Eufaula, (5A) Charles Henderson, (3A) Pike County and Opp, (2A) Geneva County and (1A) Florala and Brantley all made the top ten. I know the early-season polls are often popularity contests more than actually based upon team skills, but it is good to have so many teams ranked and should mean we are in for a fun ride after the holidays.

*** Okay, back to the NBA for a second. Giannis Antetokounmpo signed a five-year contract extension with the Milwaukee Bucks recently for a cool $228 million, which is now the biggest contract in NBA history. The back-to-back league MVP with the longest name in the league is now the richest player in the league that is filled with multi-millionaires. The contract sounds crazy to an old country boy like me, but if the Bucks can maintain their average attendance total of 721,692 per season, as it did the season before the pandemic, the new contract will cost the fans an increase of only $12.64 per fan, per season. I guess maybe the contract isn't so crazy after all!

Fall to Gamecocks

Tigers drop overtime thriller 67-65

The Elba Tigers watched a last second three-pointer hit nothing but the net to send the game into overtime last Tuesday night against New Brockton, but also watched as a three-pointer at the buzzer in the extra period bounced off the rim to allow the Gamecocks to leave the Tiger gym with a 67-65 overtime win in the cross-county shootout.

Elba jumped out to an early 4-2 lead on a basket by Collin Harrison and was tied at 6-6 midway through the opening quarter, only to see New Brockton's Dillon Kelty scored four straight points late in the stanza as the Gamecocks opened up a 14-8 advantage.

The Tigers pulled within 18-14 early in the second quarter on a driving lay-up by Chrystyle Caldwell and appeared ready to catch the Gamecocks. However, New Brockton's Damarion Holt sparked a 10-1 run as the Gamecocks took their biggest lead of the half at 28-15.

A long three-pointer by Elba's John Martin Wilson sparked a 7-0 run that pulled the Tigers within 28-22 late in the stanza, and at the half the New Brockton lead stood at seven points at 31-24.

The county rivals swapped baskets early in the third quarter, but the Tigers battled back late in the stanza and when Chrystyle Caldwell banked in a short jumper in the final minute Elba had chopped the Gamecocks lead to 40-37.

Elba pulled within 42-40 early in the fourth quarter on a three-point play by JT Coleman, but the Gamecocks again answered the rally and upped their lead to 47-41 when Matthew Smith drained a pair of free throws.

Elba suffers two losses

The Elba Tigers had another busy week on the basketball court, but continued to experience early-season struggles as their record dipped to 0-7.

Following are recaps of two of the three games:

GENEVA 77 ELBA 50

The Elba Tigers fell behind early and saw two gallant comeback attempts fall far short in a 77-50 road loss to the Geneva Panthers, last Monday night.

The Tigers fell behind 15-4 midway through the opening quarter and trailed 31-14 with 6:16 left in the second quarter, but began to connect from the foul line late in the quarter and closed the half with an 11-2 rally to pull within 38-27 at intermission.

Elba closed to within 40-32 early in the third quarter after a 3-pointer by Jordan Marek and a basket by Collin Harrison. However, the Panthers answered with a 19-0 run to extend their lead to 59-32 late in the quarter and carried a 64-39 lead into the final stanza. Geneva upped its lead to 72-42 with 5:39 left in the game the Tigers never again challenged as they took the 77-50 loss.

Collin Harrison scored 12 points and Alvin Henderson added 10 to lead Elba, while Noah Johnson led the Panthers.

cut the New Brockton lead to 52-50 at the three-minute mark of the stanza, but the Tigers could never catch up until Collin Harrison connected on a deep three-pointer with time winding down to send the game into overtime tied at 57-57.

Elba's Kimdarius Hill scored on a lay-up and John Martin Wilson converted two free throws early in the extra period to out the Tigers on top 61-57; however, a three-pointer by the Gamecocks Damarion Holt sparked a 5-0 run that out New Brockton back on top 62-61.

The Tigers went back on top 65-64 inside the final minute on a steal and lay-up by JT Coleman, but New Brockton's Matthew Smith tied the game at 65-65 on a free-throw, and Damarion Holt banked in a short jumper with two-seconds left to put the Gamecocks on top 67-65.

Elba fired a deep pass to the corner and had a good look at a game winning basket, but the ball bounced off the rim as New Brockton celebrated the wild 67-65 win.

Collin Harrison and Chrystyle Caldwell both scored 17 points to lead the Tigers, while JT Coleman added 10 points. Dillon Kelty led the Gamecocks with 21 points, while Matthew Smith added 17 and Damarion Holt scored 16.

Elba Rec youth basketball in practice mode with games set to begin in January

Bane said Elba City Schools had been allowing use of the elementary school gym for practices, and the city thanked the school system for its generosity. She said games are set to begin in January.

midway through the second stanza. Elba's Nina Williams drained a long 3-pointer and then converted a three-point play to spark a 10-0 run for the Lady Tigers as Elba closed to within 29-20 with 1:16 remaining in the half, and even though the Lady Panthers added a late basket, the Lady Tigers trailed only 31-20 at intermission.

May the Beauty of the Season Fill Your Heart and Home With Contentment

It Christmastime! Holiday cheer is one of Cuzin Lou Lou's favorite things each and every year!

She loves to reminisce over memories from her childhood. She and Sister often get good laughs off of some of their 'days gone' memories, but they cherish them deeply.

In the spirit of Christmas [with this edition of Tales from Yonder being in the Christmas Eve paper], Lou Lou wanted to share a few of her favorite Christmas memories with her readers...

The Christmas Lou Lou and Sister Got Proof that Santa is Real!

Who needs today's pogo sticks? Remember the pogo balls of the 1980s?

It was the Christmas that pogo balls were all the craze, and both Lou Lou and Sister had asked Santa to deliver them each a pogo ball. They were super excited for the new toy, even if it probably meant a few bumps and bruises along the way.

Well...Christmas morning arrived, and sure enough there were two pogo balls underneath the tree! Both Lou Lou and Sister were beyond gleeful!

Of course, Mama and Papa insisted they get all the gifts opened before going outside to play with the new pogo balls...and there was waiting also to eat breakfast and get dressed. Lou Lou determined over the years that Mama and Papa just liked to torture their Christmas enthusiasm by making them wait to go outside and play with their new toys!

The time arrived, and Lou Lou and Sister grabbed their pogo balls to head outside! Wait! Something was not right!

Right there on Sister's pogo ball was a mark...a black mark! Sister began to deflate at the thought of her pogo ball having a defect, but that was not it at all!

"Sister!" Lou Lou exclaimed. "Do you not realize what that is on your pogo ball?"

No, was Sister's reply.

"It's a mark from Santa's shoe!" Lou Lou insisted. "Santa played with your pogo ball, and his shoe left a mark on it! How cool is that?!"

"Mama! Lou Lou says that Santa played with my pogo ball and left his mark on it? Is that true?" Sister turned to her ultimate source of verification.

"It has to be!" Mama confirmed.

Then Papa chimed in...

"And, the ball is a little deflated. With Santa being a bit too big for your pogo ball, I bet it deflated the ball while he was jumping around on it," Papa said. "No problem, though. I can add some air back for you."

So, it was true! Santa really was real!! And, to those who doubt it, he also enjoys 'testing' the toys from time to time just to be sure they will work prop-erly on Christmas Day. The proof was on the pogo ball, so to speak...

The Christmas Sister Woke Everyone Up Way Too Early!

As Lou Lou got a little older in her childhood years, she remained excited on Christmas morning to see what Santa had left, along with opening gifts from Papa and Mama; however, she also realized the gifts would still be there even if everyone slept in a little later.

Sister, on the other hand, never had that realization! And, with her being the younger of the two, she was most always the one to jump up bright eyed first to make a dash to the Christmas tree. Each and every year, she would come running into Lou Lou's room filled with joy.

"Santa came! Santa came!" Sister would yell.

This one particular year, Sister did not even peer at the clock before she made her announcement all through the house. Upon waking everyone up, it soon became clear that Sister had gotten a tad bit too excited and had woken everyone before dawn...3:30 a.m. to be exact!

Well...there was no sending Sister [or Lou Lou really at this point] back to bed knowing Santa had already made his deliveries. So, a very tired Papa and Mama [they had not been in bed very long themselves, it was revealed years later] gave in to the excitement and allowed the opening of presents early, early that Christmas morning.

The catch on this particular Christmas, however, was that Lou Lou and Sister had been gifted by Santa a trampoline that year. And, where do trampolines reside...yep! Outside!

So, Papa and Mama got the last laugh that year as they sent Sister and Lou Lou outside in the dark searching for the 'big gift' Santa had left for them.

Seeing as that the trampoline was just out back from the backdoor, it would have been easy to just open that door and show the girls the gift, but no, Mama and Papa found it funny to send them trekking from the front to the back [Lou Lou still harasses Sister for causing that one by not sleeping a few hours longer].

Lou Lou and Sister soon found said trampoline and enjoyed a few minutes of pre-dawn jumping, but Mama and Papa quickly convinced them to return to bed so everyone could get a little more rest before the day actually began!

Long story short on this one...make sure the sun is at least up before waking the household on Christmas Day. Sister never again woke anyone before dawn after that Christmas. Of course, now, she is the one all are dragging from the bed on Christmas Day!

Those two fun Christmas stories came to mind this week as Lou Lou and Sister were making a new Christmas memory together. Monday night of this week, they were looking upon the "Christmas Star" [the planets of Jupiter and Saturn aligning]. This was the closest the two planets had appeared together in about 800 years, and the happening won't occur again until 2080, experts say.

Lou Lou was marveling at the uniqueness [coolness] of the event after she and Sister located the 'star' in the sky when she noticed that Sister did not seem as enthusiastic about it as she had before they actually located it. Lou Lou wondered where Sister's enthusiasm had gone, and then it hit her.

"Sister...You thought it was going to look like the star we see in all the Christmas scenes accompanying the birth of Jesus, didn't you?" Lou Lou asked with a sheepish grin on her face.

A very reluctant Sister admitted that she did indeed have that image in her mind and was a bit disappointed to realize it was not at all the case.

Lou Lou promises she only laughed a short while at Sister for this one, but she did eventually convince Sister it still was a really cool event they had just shared together. Truth is though...that kid wonder Sister had prior to the event was gone with no return after she realized the actuality of the event. There is a little bit of kid in us all, no matter our age!

This Christmas, even though it will be a bit different for many of us due to the COVID-19 pandemic we are still battling, don't forget to enjoy it just like a kid on Christmas morning that gets up wayyy to early to open presents or realizes that Santa played with his/her toys, and be that adult that still has a kid's wonder in her heart as she looks to the sky to see the stars! Make sure your family and friends know just how much love you have for them in your heart, and whether you are together or far apart, make memories to last a lifetime!

Until next time...God Bless, Keep Smiling, and...
